

Welcome to Esters!

I fell in love with wine for many reasons, but mostly because of the stories behind the bottles. Our shelves are filled with wines made by smaller producers, whose stories I know and love.

Many people are intimidated by wine. I want to change that. The truth is, it's just grape juice. It doesn't matter what you know. Just start talking to us. Or we'll start talking to you! Do you like full-bodied wine, or lighter styles? Do you like something more earthy or fruity? What's your budget? Let's have a chat.

The wines on our walls (and in the first part of this book) are separated by style. There's a separate section for our cellar bottles. (Something extra special for THAT kind of night.)

If you fall in love with a wine on our list, you can take it home. Nearly all our bottles are available in the retail shop.

So whether you're a novice or a Master Sommelier, I hope you'll find something unique to enjoy.

Cheers!

Kathryn

KATHRYN'S MAY PICKS

SPARKLING

Centralas 'Hussy' Rosé, Santa Barbara, California 2019 ... 50

A biodynamically grown, barrel aged, single vineyard rosé from Alisos Canyon, Santa Barbara County, Centralas 'Hussy' is America's first Grand Cru Rosé. While most rosés are made with the grapes that weren't good enough for red wines, Hussy is made with the biodynamically grown Grenache and Syrah grapes that were selected specifically for their quality. The brainchild of Adam Huss, Centralas is an urban winery based right here in Los Angeles, with a focus on organic, vegan, and minimal intervention wines.

WHITE

François Chidaine 'Les Argiles' Montlouis, Loire Valley, France 2018 ... 57

François Chidaine is the second generation to oversee his family's estate in Montlouis, perched on a promontory between the Loire and the Cher rivers. He's best known as a leader in natural viticulture, as well as being one of the most exciting white winemakers in the Loire Valley. Chidaine's success comes from meticulous farming of old vines in the best plots and hands-off winemaking. The vines for 'Les Argiles' come from a variety of satellite plots orbiting Clos Baudoin, among the most celebrated Chenin vineyards in the world. The Clos and many of its surrounding parcels are now owned by the Chidaines, farmed in their diligently regenerative methods for maximum flavor and minimum impact on the surrounding ecosystem.

RED

Cameron 'Abbey Ridge' Pinot Noir, Willamette Valley, Oregon 2017 ... 130

John Paul, the irrepressible owner and winemaker of Cameron, founded the winery in 1984. After working out of a roofless warehouse on the other side of the tracks in McMinnville, they moved to their current location in the hills above Dundee. John Paul came to winemaking from an academic background. After receiving a PhD in Marine Biochemistry, he realized that winemaking offered opportunities to use the right side of his brain and to drink at work. He therefore jumped academic ship and began working in the wine industry, with stints in Oregon, New Zealand, and California. Cameron Winery is dedicated to producing high-quality, hand-crafted and sustainably-farmed libations for the people. A small family operation, producing 3,000 to 4,000 cases annually, John is joined by his wife Teri, winemaker Tom Sivilli, vineyard manager Phil London, their dog Linus, Vinnie the cat, 12 chickens, 2 sheep and 2 hives of bees.
