

Welcome to Esters!

I fell in love with wine for many reasons, but mostly because of the stories behind the bottles. Our shelves are filled with wines made by smaller producers, whose stories I know and love.

Many people are intimidated by wine. I want to change that. The truth is, it's just grape juice. It doesn't matter what you know. Just start talking to us. Or we'll start talking to you! Do you like full-bodied wine, or lighter styles? Do you like something more earthy or fruity? What's your budget? Let's have a chat.

The wines on our walls (and in the first part of this book) are separated by style. There's a separate section for our cellar bottles. (Something extra special for THAT kind of night.)

If you fall in love with a wine on our list, you can take it home. Nearly all our bottles are available in the retail shop.

So whether you're a novice or a Master Sommelier, I hope you'll find something unique to enjoy.

Cheers!

Kathryn

Farming Matters!

Over the past couple of years, we've been making steps for a healthier planet and focusing on the farming behind the bottles on our shelves. All wines coming into Esters come from chemical-free vineyards, but we're all about finding winemakers that go above and beyond by implementing one or more of the following practices.

Organic (CO) - Farming without the use of chemical fertilizers, pesticides or other artificial agents.

Practicing Organic (PO) - Follows the above practices, but doesn't have official certification from their country, as this can be a very expensive process for small farmers and winemakers. They're still doing the important work though!

Biodynamic (B) - A holistic, spiritual way of farming beyond organic. Everything in the vineyard is interconnected, working in harmony with the sun, the stars and the moon.

Dry-Farmed (DF) - Vines cultivated without irrigation. Farmers plant a variety of drought-resistant cover crops that are mulched into the land during rainy periods.

No-Till (NT) - Farming without tilling or plowing. This method doesn't disturb the soil or leave it bare. It decreases erosion, runoff and weeds, AND it's a way of sequestering carbon.

Regenerative (R) - A way of farming that renews and heals the land. It builds soil fertility, ecosystem diversity and draws carbon down from the atmosphere through cover crops, crop rotations, compost and animal manures. This method incorporates ALL of the other farming tenets mentioned above, and it's one of the key ways to reduce global warming.

KATHRYN'S JANUARY PICKS

SPARKLING

Laherte Freres Rosé de Meunières, Extra Brut Côteaux Sud d'Épernay, Champagne NV PO 108

Founded in 1889 by Jean-Baptiste Laherte, the estate was originally in the village of Chavot. Fourth generation vigneron Michel Laherte expanded the family estate and together with his wife Cécile, turned away from pesticides and herbicides. Instead, they began working the soils, gently vinifying the juices, and remaining humble and patient as the wines developed. This philosophy is the foundation of the estate and has endured through the generations. Today, under the direction of Aurélien Laherte who took over in 2005, the estate has become one of the most progressive and dynamic rising stars in the appellation. This is impeccably made, natural Champagne.

Meyer-Fonne 'Dorfburg' V.V. Gewurztraminer, Alsace, France, 2018 PO 72

The Gewürztraminer grape (pronounced geh-WERTS-truh-meen-er) is one of my favorite pairing wines for fall vegetables. It's a unique varietal, with notes of lychee, citrus, rose petal, ginger and spice. And it often has a slightly sweet flavor, called "off dry." This beautiful version is made by Félix Meyer, a rising star in Alsace. The winery and family home is in the village of Katzenthal, known for its distinctive granite soils. Felix is the third generation in his family to be making wine since his grandfather founded the domaine in the late 19th century.

RED

Jean Foillard 'Cuvee Corcelette' Morgon, Beaujolais, France 2020 co 124

Cru Beaujolais is loved by wine-geeks everywhere, but Foillard is one of the sommelier-darlings. It's because Jean Foillard is one of the original 'Gang of Four' - a group of vignerons who got together in the 80s to support a movement towards natural winemaking. (At that time there was a huge push towards mass-production and commercialization in Beaujolais, and the "Beaujolais-Nouveau" marketing campaign.) Foillard works with old vines, no herbicides or pesticides, minimal sulphur, and indigenous yeasts. Most of all, his wines are DELICIOUS!

A NOTE ABOUT FARMING

Esters acquired many of our cellar wines before our 2020 commitment to transparency with farming practices, so some of the following wines do not fall within our new guidelines.

However, the majority of the wines listed without symbols fall into the sustainable farming category, and use mostly organic practices.
